REMARKS

Kathryn A. Brailler

SHEILA M. COSTILOW

Mrs. Sheila M. Costilow recently retired from her position as Financial Aid Assistant, a position she held from 1975 to 1997. Before Sheila began working in the Financial Aid Office, she worked part-time in the Office of Student Affairs.

Mrs. Costilow was born in Westernport, MD, and attended Strayer College. She received her A.A. degree from Potomac State College in 1991.

Prior to her employment at Potomac State, Sheila worked at Westvaco, Dow, Lohnes & Albertson, and the United States Department of Agriculture. She is a member of the West Virginia Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators.

Sheila is married to Edward Costilow. They have three children, John, Christine, and Scott, and five grandchildren, Meagan, Jessica, James, J.T., and Avery.

In her spare time Sheila enjoys reading and doing ceramics. She is planning a trip to Branson, MO in May and plans to spend the summer with her family at their cabin on the South Branch.

PETER L. PAULSON

Dr. Peter L. Paulson is being recognized this evening for 25 years of service as professor at Potomac State College. He also serves as Coordinator of the Education Unit.

Dr. Paulson was born in South Charleston, WV and holds B.A., M.A., and Ed.D. degrees from West Virginia University.

Besides teaching at Potomac State, Pete has taught English, education, and reading courses at WVU in Morgantown and at three other colleges.

Dr. Paulson is a member of many professional organizations including the National Council of Teachers of English, the International Reading Association, the National Association for Developmental Education, and the West Virginia Faculty Development Network.

Pete's hobbies include reading, painting, gardening, acting, playing piano, and attending plays. He resides in Keyser with wife Jane and children Daniel and Joanna.

JOANN SHIMER

Joann Shimer is being honored this evening upon retirement from her position as Senior Administrative Secretary in the Student Affairs Office, where she has worked for 21 years.

Mrs. Shimer was born in Nikep, Maryland, and has lived in Westernport for 38 years. She attended Bruce High School and Catherman's Business School. While attending Catherman's, Joann was selected to serve as secretary to Senator Kimble while the Legislature was in session.

Joann has previously been employed at Westvaco, the U.S. Naval Base in Washington, D.C., and Celanese. She is a member of St. Peter's Choir, the American Legion Auxiliary, and has served four years as secretary of the Catholic Daughters.

Joann is married to Robert Shimer, with whom she went to grade school and high school and to whom she has been married for 41 years! Joann's family members include daughter and son-in-law Diane and Walter May, son Chris and daughter-in-law Brenda, and grandchildren Kristy and Robby May and Cory and Derrick Shimer.

Joann enjoys playing the organ, line dancing, and ceramics. She plans to travel and spend time with her grandchildren, as well as to do volunteer work at the elementary school and to participate in activities at the senior center.

HARLAN N. SHREVE

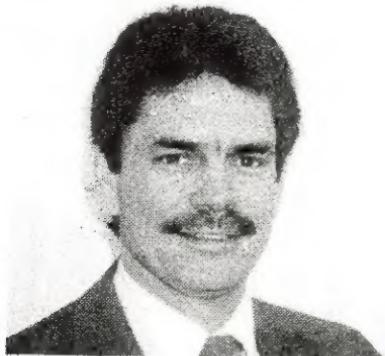

Harlan N. Shreve is being honored for 25 years of service in the Potomac State College Computer Center, where he presently serves as Applications Systems Analyst/Programmer Senior and previously served as Programmer/Operator and Senior Programmer.

Mr. Shreve was born in Keyser, WV. He is a Keyser High School graduate and earned an A.A.S. degree in Computer Technology at Potomac State.

Harlan's family members include wife Karen and daughter Jamie.

In his spare time Harlan enjoys the out of doors, gardening, hunting, and table tennis (especially when he was able to win a game against the "champ," Richard Smith)!

JOHN C. STONE

Mr. John C. Stone is being honored tonight upon completion of 25 years of service to Potomac State. He is professor of accounting and has previously served as chairperson of Division IV.

John has a B.S.B.A. degree from West Virginia University, and an M.S.M. from Frostburg State College. In addition, John is a certified public accountant.

Professor Stone had a long affiliation with the College's baseball team as assistant baseball coach.

John has two sons, Nathan, a student at West Virginia University, and Corbin, a student at Keyser High School.

John enjoys hunting, baseball, and spending time with his sons.

WANDA L. TWYMAN

Wanda L. Twyman is being honored this evening upon her retirement from PSC with 26 years of service as a food service assistant. She has been the morning cook at the College for the past 13 years.

Wanda was born in Petersburg, where she attended Petersburg Grade School and Petersburg Junior High School.

Before coming to Potomac State, Wanda worked at the Petersburg Potomac Motel, the Petersburg Drive-In, and in housekeeping.

Mrs. Twyman is a member of the Ladies Auxiliary, Washington-Smith Post 152, and the Ladies Auxiliary, Post 5957, V.F.W.

Wanda has five daughters, Barbara, Gwen, Rhonda, Lwendolyn, and Sheila, and seven grandchildren.
